• What is one of the most impulsive things you have ever done (or bought)? What was so satisfying about your impulsive act?

With your Bible or YouVersion, read 1 John 2:15-17, Luke 15:12 and Genesis 25:29-32.

These passages show us that normal people want what they want now and trade the ultimate for the immediate.

• What do you think are some of the causes of normal people's need for immediate satisfaction?

• Why do think the things and values of the world are so enticing to us?

• What desires are holding you back from living in the holy way God is calling you to live?

• What is your bowl of stew – the main desire that you're trading in God's best for?

Read Proverbs 16:32, Psalm 37:4 and Galatians 5:16-25.

These verses describe how holy people know later is often better than now and how they seek God until His desires become their own.

• What does patience and self-control look like in your life? Where do you need improvement?

• Why is having patience and self-control such a struggle for most people? What is the Spirit's role in this conflict?

• In what ways do your desires match up with God's? What makes these desires so different than any others you may have?
